

Eve n' Paparo

ACOUSTIC DUO

With a big voice and a set list to match, Eve n' Paparo is a full sound musical collaboration featuring Jennell Eve on Vocals and Michael Paparo on Guitar. This musical force is based out of Jupiter FL. With an extensive repertoires, they create captivating renditions of songs with a unique flair. Covering everything from ballads, pop, rock, todays top hits to all of your favorite party tunes. Their signature acoustic sound will be sure to give your event soul to make it memorable. When we perform at an event we aren't just playing songs, we are building memories and bringing people together by creating a warm atmosphere with the songs people love.

"We truly love what we do and believe in the power of music to transform and bring life into any event."

Jennell Eve

Jennell Eve had her solo debut at the age of 9. She grew up singing the church choir as a toddler, where she began to sing and mimic the choir director while waiting for her older brother at choir practice. She would sing so loud in the pews, they finally let her join, despite being under the age limit. From that point on, music has shaped who Jennell is today. Jennell is a Florida native. Throughout her childhood, she was active in numerous musical theatre productions, with leading and supporting roles. Throughout high school, Jennell performed at countless county fairs all along the east coast of Florida. In 2009, Jennell was a contestant in season 9 of American Idol. She then received a full music scholarship at Indian River State College, where Jennell studied jazz voeal performance and musical therapy, and traveled with the Company Singers. After graduating from college, Jennell has been very active in the music scene. A full time musician, Jennell is living her passion and it shows.

Michael Paparo

Michael Paparo is a multi-instrumentalist, who started playing bass guitar at 13 years old. He is well known for the upright bass, acoustic and electric guitar, piano and drums. Originally from New York, he relocated to south Florida in 1999. He is one of the founding members of Big Vince and the Phat Cats, one of the original house bands at BB Kings in West Palm Beach Florida. He has shared the stage numerous big names such as The Doobie Brothers, Melissa Etheridge, Grand Funk Railroad, Hootie and the Blow Fish, The Coasters, Clarence Clemons and a host of others. Michael is also a certified luthier (instrument building and repair). His styles are diverse from funk to country, blues, rock and Jazz.

